v. Plaintiffs,

UNITED SERVICES AUTOMOBILE
ASSOCIATION, USAA INSURANCE
AGENCY, INC., USAA CASUALTY
INSURANCE COMPANY, and USAA
GENERAL INDEMNITY COMPANY,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:23-cv-01880-RAJ

STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER TO REMAND FOR LACK OF DIVERSITY JURISDICTION UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)

LR 7-1 CERTIFICATION

Counsel for Plaintiffs Ronny R. Tull, Jr. and Laurel Tull (“Plaintiffs”) and for Defendant United Services Automobile Association (“USAA”) have conferred and have stipulated to remand the case to Whatcom County Superior Court due to a lack of federal diversity jurisdiction.

STIPULATED MOTION TO REMAND FOR LACK OF DIVERSITY JURISDICTION

The parties mutually and respectfully request the Court remand the above-captioned case to Whatcom County Superior Court due to lack of diversity of citizenship between Plaintiffs and USAA.

A natural person is deemed a citizen of the state in which he or she is domiciled. (Kanter v. Warner-Labert Co., 265 F.3d 853, 857 (9th Cir. 2001).) At all material times, Plaintiffs are alleged to have resided in Whatcom County in the State of Washington. (Dkt. 1 at ¶¶ 1–2.) Plaintiffs are thus considered citizens of the State of Washington for purposes of determining diversity of citizenship.

1 USAA is an unincorporated reciprocal inter-insurance exchange with members in all 50
 2 states, including Washington. As a matter of law, a reciprocal insurance exchange is an
 3 unincorporated association considered to share the citizenship of each of its members for diversity
 4 purposes. (Johnson v. Columbia Properties Anchorage, LP, 437 F.3d 894, 899 (9th Cir. 2006);
 5 Tuck v. United Services Auto. Ass'n, 859 F.2d 842, 844-845 (10th Cir. 1988).) As USAA has
 6 members in Washington (including Plaintiffs), USAA is considered a citizen of the State of 7 Washington for purposes of assessing diversity jurisdiction.

8 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) allows for original federal jurisdiction over civil matters when the 9 parties are citizens of different states. However, because both Plaintiffs and USAA are citizens of 10 the State of Washington, complete diversity of citizenship between the parties does not exist. The 11 Court therefore lacks original jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' Complaint.

12 As the allegations in Plaintiffs' Complaint relate to a motor vehicle accident having 13 occurred in Whatcom County, Washington (Dkt. 1 at ¶ 4), the parties respectfully request the Court
 14 remand the case to Whatcom County Superior Court in the State of Washington.
